Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®)
CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®)

The Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®) designation is issued by the CFA Institute after candidates pass three course exams involving 250 hours of self-study time for each of the three levels. In order to qualify to sit for the exams, candidates must have an undergraduate degree or four years of qualified professional experience or a combination of work and college experience that totals at least four years.

Candidates are also required to sign a Professional Conduct Statement and a Candidate Responsibility Statement.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates are required to complete a CFP-board registered program. They must also pass the CFP Certification Examination. The exam includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances. Certified individuals are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite to sitting for the CFP Certification Examination, candidates must hold a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and have at least 3 years of full time personal financial planning experience.
