Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Brett A. Power, b. 1982

Education Background

University of Georgia – BA, Economics

Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University – MBA

Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®)

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®)

The Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®) designation is issued by the CFA Institute after candidates pass three course exams involving 250 hours of self-study time for each of the three levels. In order to qualify to sit for the exams, candidates must have an undergraduate degree or four years of qualified professional experience or a combination of work and college experience that totals at least four years. Candidates are also required to sign a Professional Conduct Statement and a Candidate Responsibility Statement.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates are required to complete a CFP-board registered program. They must also pass the CFP Certification Examination. The exam includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances. Certified individuals are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite to sitting for the CFP Certification Examination, candidates must hold a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and have at least 3 years of full time personal financial planning experience.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal and disciplinary events that would be material to clients' and prospective clients' evaluation of the representative. Mr. Power has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Mr. Power is a 50% owner of Power Protection Strategies, LLC ("PPS") through his wholly owned entity, Powerful Ventures, LLC. PPS is an independent licensed insurance agency. He is also separately licensed as an independent insurance agent and earns commissions and other compensation when recommending insurance products. Mr. Power spends as much as 10% of his time on these non-advisory activities. Additionally, he receives an indirect benefit of all insurance sales that are made through PPS due to the fact that owners share in the profits and losses of the agency. This remuneration poses a conflict in that Mr. Power has a financial incentive to recommend insurance products that result in commissions, trails or other payments. PWM is dedicated to acting in the clients' best interests based on fiduciary principles. Clients are under no obligation to purchase any insurance products.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Other than as stated above, Mr. Power does not have any compensation to disclose.

Item 6 - Supervision

PWM provides investment advisory and supervisory services in accordance with the Firm's policies and procedures manual. The primary purpose of PWM's policies and procedures is to comply with the supervision requirements of the Investment Advisers Act. Nicholas Coppola, CCO, is primarily responsible for the implementation of the Firm's policies and procedures and overseeing the activities of the supervised persons and client accounts. Should a client have any questions regarding the Firm's supervision of Mr. Power or compliance practices, please contact Mr. Coppola at (404) 889-8919.
